

Opening press conference in Leskovac for the project "We invest in the development of sport for the young-career motivations smart power development and cohesion between the municipality of Botevgrad and Leskovac"

Interreg - IPA CBC
Bulgaria - Serbia

Opening press conference held on, 28/04/2017 at the Youth Club in Leskovac, presented the project "We invest in the development of sport for the young-career motivations smart power development and cohesion between the municipality of Botevgrad and Leskovac", funded by INTERREG CBC IPA cross-border cooperation Bulgaria-Serbia. This event is presented by the coordinator Vladan Stoilković Serbian partner - KK Actavis Academy Leskovac,

Representatives of the project partners from Bulgaria - Botevgrad Municipality and "Foundation of Modernity". The representatives were Janka Aleksandrova (koordinator BG), which carried out the presentation of the planned project activities and results, and experts Maria Peeva and Radostina Vutev, talked about how to Forum Theater and psychological support for career development in entrepreneurial skills and attitudes.

At the press conference there was talk about starting and intensive training of trainers in how forum theater and psychological support for career development, led by Bulgarian experts. The training program is based on the use of interactive theater techniques and psychological approaches to the formation of entrepreneurial thinking among young athletes to improve the properties acquired through sport. Tim expert from Leskovac. Project includes expert Forum theater - Ana Pecarski and psychologist Ivana Stanković, who will work with young basketball players from BC Actavis Academy.

The project is co-funded by EU through the Interreg-IPA CBC Bulgaria–Serbia Programme.